The meeting place will be the home of the vice-president, Richard Somers at 25319 Pennsylvania Ave.

Becker to Head Community Chest Campaign This Year

First official meeting of top leadership for the 1959-60 Community Chest fund appeal in Harbor Area was held in the Hollywood Riviera home of television star Rosemary de Camp, who adds glamour to the campaign cabinet as residential chairman. Area chairman this year is Jim Becker, Torrance-Lomita manager for Southern California Gas Company, Torrance city chairman last year and named outstanding volunteer leader at the annual meeting of the Welfare Federation area board.

Other cabinet appointees, announced by Glenn Koger, Welfare Federation area chairman, include Fred Mill, Torrance Chamber of Commerce president, area vice chairman; Erode Kilofte, Wilmington, advance gifts chairman for third year, and Bert Lynn, civic leader, commerce and industry chairman.

Becker, who has participated in many area campaigns, recently was named president of Torrance Dental Health Association. He is past city chairman for Harbor Area Boy Scouts, a Community Chest agency, and is completing a term as Lion Tamer for Torrance Lions Club.
